Re: Joint Motion for Extension of Briefing Schedule on Consent of All Parties

Colony Ins. Co. v. Hudson Ins. Co. and United Specialty Ins. Co., 24-cv-00236 (JGLC)

Dear Judge Clarke:

I am counsel for plaintiff Colony Insurance Company, and write on behalf of all parties to request an extension of the briefing schedule for summary judgment motions.

The extension is requested to provide the parties an opportunity to assess and consider the impact of, and report to our respective clients about, defendant United Specialty Insurance Company's ("USIC") agreement, today, to accept the tenders of defense coverage, subject to a reservation of rights on its duty to indemnify, for Colony's insured, SH Kingsland LLC, and for defendant Hudson Excess Insurance Company's insured, Innovative Construction NYC LLC, for the underlying lawsuit at issue in this action.

Given this development, the parties jointly ask that the briefing schedule be extended to enable them sufficient time to consider the impact of USIC's tender acceptance on their respective claims and motion arguments. The parties propose the following new briefing schedule:

	Current Deadline	Proposed New Deadline
Moving Papers	June 30, 2025	July 15, 2025
Opposition Papers	July 28, 2025	August 19, 2025
Reply Papers	August 20, 2025	September 5, 2025

We thank the Court for its consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH K. POE (JKP 1960)
